

Boulders slide down Telegraph Hill, smash car

Michael Cabanatuan and Will Kane, San Francisco Chronicle, 1-24-12

Several boulders, apparently loosened by recent rains, tumbled down Telegraph Hill near a condominium complex on Monday.

One boulder smashed a parked car owned by a security guard for the complex, but no one was injured.

Residents on the lower floors of the multistory complex at 240 Lombard St. were ordered out at 9:30 a.m.

Inspections by officials determined the hillside was stable enough for residents of all units but one to return later on Monday.